

CABINET SPLITS ON PACKER MERGER

Daugherty and Wallace at Odds on Proposition

DECISION UP TO HARDING

Attorney General for Combine, Agriculture Secretary Against

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — A split has developed in President Harding's cabinet over the proposed merger of the Armour and Morris packing interests. Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, in charge of the enforcement of all packer control laws, is strongly opposed to the consolidation.

Attorney General Daugherty, the law enforcer of the government who would conduct any prosecution of the packers at the request of the department of agriculture, the only obstacle to the merger but favors it.

President Harding will have to make the final decision.

Approval by the government of the purchase of the Morris Packing interests by the Armour Company was sought by J. O. O'Brien in advance of consummation of the transaction in the hope of preventing any anti-trust prosecutions in the future.

FARM MATTERS
The question has served to bring to the fore again the rather sharp differences of opinion on agricultural matters between Daugherty and the secretary of agriculture.

Secretary Wallace's views are more nearly those of the farm bloc in congress, which the president has consistently opposed and in the present situation Wallace has the support of this powerful group.

Wallace is basing his opposition to the merger largely on the fact that government reports show virtually all the big packing companies are operating from 45 to 65 per cent of capacity. Hence, he believes, Armour does not need the Morris properties to handle his business, but desires it only to decrease competition.

Attorney General Daugherty is said to believe the present packer control law effectively regulates the packers and that the public interest would be aided thru the merger by a possible reduction in packing costs.

FARM HAND DRAGGED BY TEAM IS BADLY HURT IN RUNAWAY NEAR DELPHOS

Frightened when several hogs jumped in front of them and ran across their path, a team of horses driven by Rene Cluesy, 23, farm hand on the James Dahling farm, a mile east of Delphos, belted down a lane and dragged him for more than a quarter of a mile.

Cluesy suffered dislocation of a leg and an arm and was badly cut when the horses plunged into a barbed wire fence. He was taken to Delphos by a physician and an X-ray used to determine extent of his injuries. There are no broken bones.

Cluesy narrowly escaped death when the horses swung the wagon against a telephone post and it fell across the horses' backs.

The farm hand was driving to a neighbor's place for the purpose of assisting him with some work when the hogs frightened the horses.

DIXIE HIGHWAY SIGNS GUIDE AUTOMOBILISTS

Motorists crossing Allen-co on the Dixie Highway will not lose their way if they follow the guide posts.

To make it doubly easy, telephone and telegraph poles are being marked at intervals with broad bands of white paint, circled with a blue band. The name of the highway is stenciled on the post.

Each post gets two coats of white paint before the blue is applied. Painters employed by the state highway department, are winding up the work this week.

Removal of the general delivery department of the Lima postoffice to the second floor of the building will be started by the workmen this week. Postmaster A. E. Gale said Monday. YOUTH TAKEN IN POLICE CHASE

Watkins Nabs Lad Alleged to Have Robbed Employer

Police added their efforts to those of A. M. Stevenson, farmer, residing six miles east of Lima, and after a quarter mile chase Tuesday nabbed John Thompson, 19, Macon, Mo., who is alleged to have robbed the home of his employer Sunday.

The youth gave up his attempt to make a clean getaway when Dick Watkins, motor policeman, showed his revolver into the youth's face and ordered him to stop.

He was manacled and taken to headquarters where he will be held until he can be arraigned.

Stevenson, Sunday night, reported to police that Thompson, who had been employed as a farm hand, ram-racked his home while his family was away at church.

Tuesday, Stevenson came to town, met Thompson on the street here near the Model Mills, and gave chase while his wife called police headquarters.

A moment later, Watkins was after the pair. Pursued and pursued had taken a course east across the B. & O. tracks and thru the Lima Gas company's plant. Watkins and Stevenson cornered Thompson a block further east.

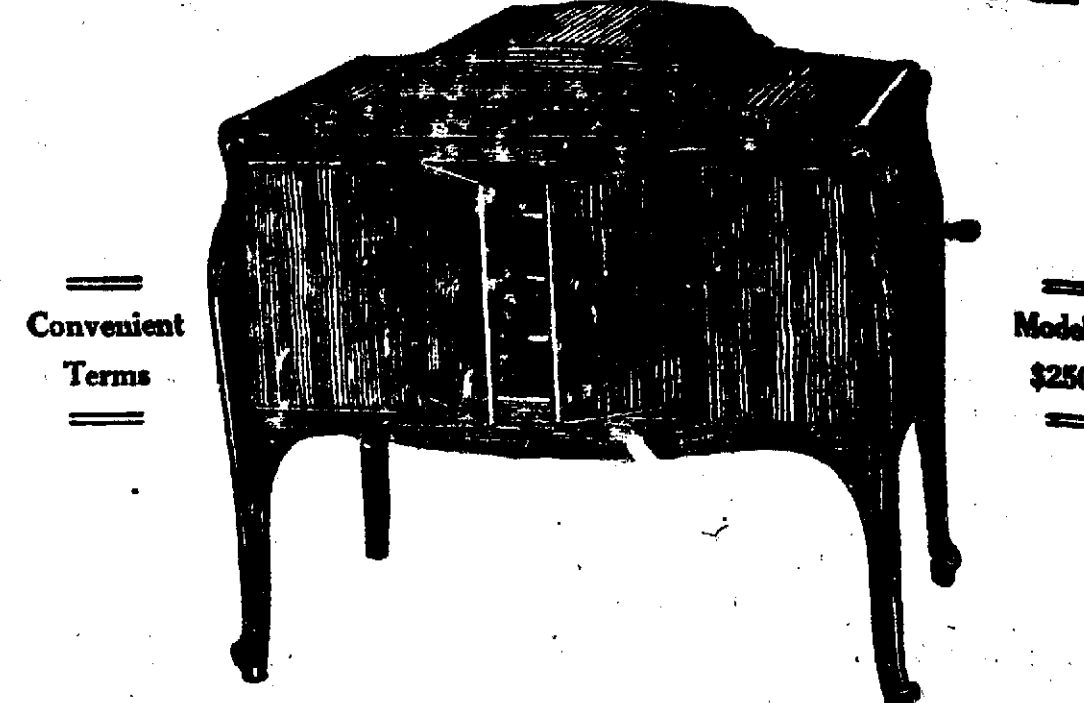

TED FOOLS THE WEATHER MAKER

Altho "the sunshiny day and generally inviting outdoors. Ted has taken into consideration the tenor of the forecast of the weather for tonight and has prepared to play safe by remaining indoors.

"Sneaking cold" is particularly dangerous to the careless when the sun shines, it has been found by large numbers of persons, who are required as a result thereof to doctor bad colds and fight pneumonia germs.

There is prospect, however, of warmer conditions tomorrow, as the forecaster sees it. "It will be well if his dope doesn't get awry. Cloudy tonight, Wednesday partly cloudy and warmer. All plans having been completed for his Thanksgiving Day activities, the little hairy weather mascot isn't worrying one whit whether it rains, snow or blows.

BUSINESS WORLD GIVEN WARNING

Dangerous Rocks Are Discerned,
B. C. Forbes Says

TIGHT REIN IS ADVISED

Caution Will Pilot Ship in Safety, Writer Thinks

(BY B. C. FORBES)
NEW YORK, (Special)—Recent-ly sounded a warning not to become audibly influenced by either favorable or unfavorable developments during coming months. Such a warning seemed needed because too many people were becoming blindly, unreasonably optimistic. Also, I had a feeling that we would witness irregular happenings.

And we are.
Think of it: On Friday thirteen stocks on the New York stock exchange broke to new low records for the year, while on the same day, five stock reached new high records for the year.

Since the middle of October the average fall in stocks has exceeded ten points. Last week's decline approximated two points.
From the year's high level, bonds are now down 4 per cent. They also were weakish last week.

Talk of irregularity, why, could anything be more irregular than the fluctuations of stocks of companies declaring huge stock dividends or special cash payments or increased regular rates? Such announcements by some directors have caused immediate advance in quotation; other stocks have celebrated similar news by promptly declining; still others have, markewise, ignored such news.

Irregularity has not been confined to the security markets. The rising tendency in the steel industry has apparently been checked and prices are now described as more inclined to sag than to soar.

Railroad traffic was breaking all records two or three weeks ago. Now it has decreased appreciably.
Copper was sluggish for quite while; now sales are announced at as high as 14 cents a pound.

"Substantial advances reported in foodstuffs with new high levels in some," says one headline, yet Dun's records that half of the total whole-sale price changes last week were declines, a distinct change from the trend for months.

The Federal Reserve banks pumped up 1 1/2 per cent last week, following a series of declines.
Call money in New York, however, finished the week at the high figure, 5 per cent.

Despite news that J. P. Morgan had given up hopes of arranging a large German loan, and despite other unsettling events in Europe, the principal foreign exchanges gained strength.

Belgian francs touched a new high point for the year.

Cheerful trade news and views still predominate.
The department of commerce concludes its latest business survey thus: "Taken all together, the statistical indicators reflect conditions decidedly in the upswing of the business cycle."

Says Marshall Field and Company: "Current whole-sale distribution of drygoods was very much larger than during the corresponding week of 1921. Mail orders and orders from road salesmen were also considerably ahead of the same period last year."

Most other reports are pitched in a similar key.

Yet, candidly, recent events in the security markets more accurately reflected the real state of mind in the majority of high financial circles than do the declaration of unusual dividends and the ordinary run of bullish interviews and reports. Many of those at the top, I feel, have become distinctly cautious for the time being.

They don't like the political outlook either at home or abroad. They fear fresh and serious attacks upon the credit and financial prospects of the railroads. They are uneasy over danger of unsound credit and financial legislation being forced through by the farm bloc and the radicals at Washington. They figure that any further substantial broadening of business would intensify labor scarcity and precipitate renewed wage troubles. They are not sure that all will go well with our foreign regarded as a possibility—symptoms are already becoming visible. They are doubtful whether consumers will take kindly to the rising commodity unless which have been vogue. And there are serious misgivings as to what may happen tax-wise.

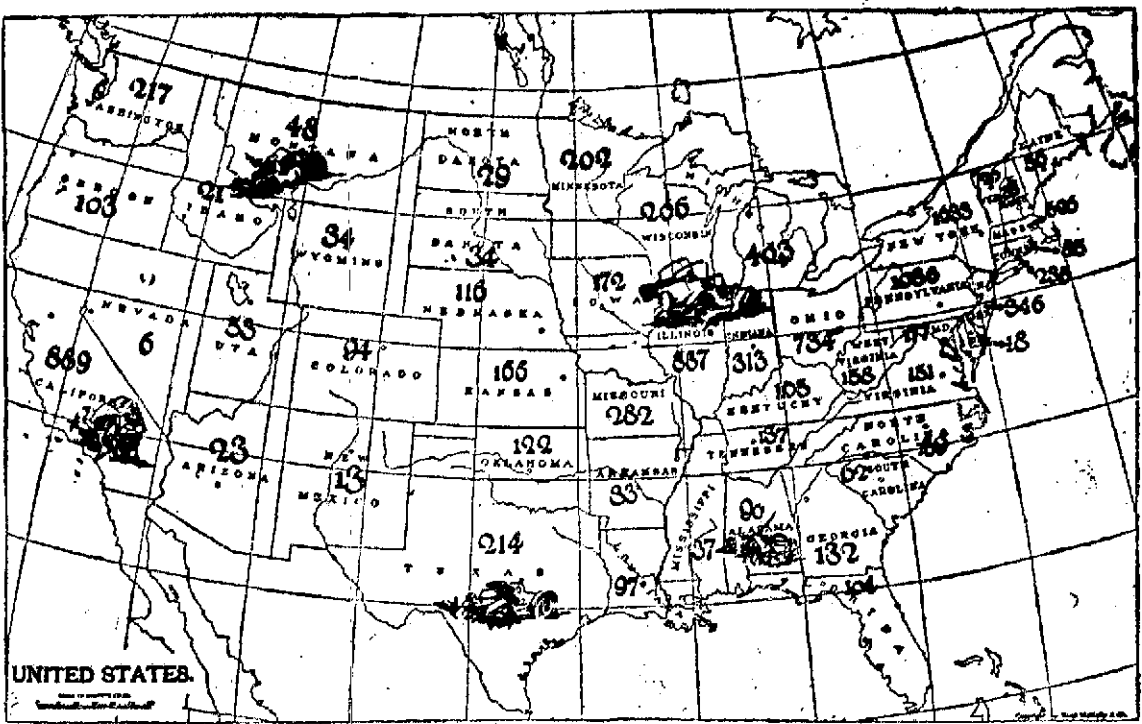

My own opinion still is that it should be possible to so handle the situation as to preserve the improving tendency in business which has been under way for months. But ill-considered, extreme action by either rapacious business interests or by short-sighted politicians could wreck the situation. The action of the security markets clearly reveals that many forward-looking owners of stocks see, or believe they see, dangers ahead.

AUTO DEATHS IN EACH STATE SHOWN

THIS MAP OF THE UNITED STATES SHOWS THE NUMBER OF FATAL AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS IN EACH STATE DURING 1921. IT WAS COMPILED FROM THE MORTALITY RECORDS OF THE STATES—THE MOST COMPREHENSIVE SURVEY OF AMERICA'S AUTO DEATH HARVEST THAT HAS EVER BEEN MADE.

ONE KILLED EVERY 40 MINUTES

900. There were 583 fatalities in California last year, or 24.1 deaths per 100,000 population. Los Angeles' rate is 27.3, with 170 fatalities last year. This was a decrease from 24.4 in 1920 for California, and an increase for Los Angeles from 27.1.

Mississippi has the lowest record for auto deaths, the rate being 2.7 per 100,000. South Carolina is second with 4.5.

Despite all their traffic police, their safety commissions and their other efforts to minimize accidents, the large cities present the highest death rate. Compared with the national death rate of 11.5 per 100,000 population, the death rate in 65 American cities last year was 15.6.

The safest city in the United States is New Bedford, Mass. It decreased its automobile fatalities from 16 in 1918 to half that number in 1921, or 6.4 per 100,000.

New York State, with 1633 auto deaths in 1921, shows a death rate of 15.4. In the first nine months of 1922, the Empire State had 1219 fatalities. New York City's fatalities in 1921 totaled 890, or 15.6 per 100,000 residents, with 701 deaths up to October 1 as the 1922 toll.

Cities with the highest ratio of automobile fatalities, following Los Angeles, are: Youngstown, O., 24.3 per 100,000; Kansas City, 20.8; Chicago, 20.3; Albany, N. Y., 20; Bridgeport, Conn., 19.5; Lowell, Mass., 19.3.

"Yearly deaths from highway traffic accidents are variously estimated at from 12,000 to 35,000," declares William L. Eno, international traffic authority. "It doubtless that even official figures give a true picture of the extent of auto fatalities."

"As a matter of fact, there is no means of making an accurate count, because many of those who ultimately die from traffic accidents get home, out of town or to a hospital, and all records of the cause of the death are often lost. It is not unlikely that the total number of deaths from highway traffic is 35,000 per year, or about 100 every day."

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy
Really better than ready-made cough syrups, and even more so. Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "cough" remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membrane so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. coal fluctuates a little, one way or another, constantly.

"Before the fuel administration was established, the price of coal at the mines was $3. A fair price of $4.50 was established and of course all producers immediately advanced the opportunity to lay the increase. Some of the better grades were boosted to $5.50, then $6.50 and on upward."

"There is no indication now of a drop in price. However, such a condition may develop in 30 or 60 days, when the law of supply and demand has an opportunity to assert itself."

That mine run coal is plentiful and that there is no immediate prospect of a break in prices, was asserted by James Mackenzie of the Fidelity Coal Co.

SEES BOARD AS JOKE
"It is our opinion," Mackenzie added, "that the fuel administration has been a huge joke so far as saving money for consumers of coal is concerned. There is no question in my mind but that the situation at this time would be eminently better if the Governor Davis coal administration had kept hands off. About all it did was in effect, demanding that producers increase costs of coal at the mine. So far as I have heard, no operator objected to that sort of an order."

G. W. Shanahan of the Consumers Fuel & Building Supply Co. sees no immediate prospect of a break in prices, altho he stated that with the receipt of Ohio coal purchases recently, a lower cost to the consumer can be made.

"We have only a few days' supply of coal on hand," Shanahan added, "but have been fairly fortunate in the matter of delivery by railroads. We feel that the coal administration idea has been a mistake and that the consumers would be eminently better off at this time if the Governor and the legislature had not meddled with the fuel price question."

REFORM URGED IN EDUCATION

Secondary Schools Attacked by University Chancellor

"FIT STUDENTS FOR JOBS"

Professors Entered Two Years Late Professor Says

BUFFALO, N. Y., (Special).—The United States faces the need of a drastic and thorough reform of its whole scheme of education, that our children and our youth may be more effectively trained, and that time may be saved in the process.

This is the declaration of Dr. Samuel P. Capen, chancellor of the University of Buffalo and formerly director of the American Council of Education.

Dr. Capen is considered one of the nation's foremost educators. In addition to directing the education council, he has been specialist in higher education in the U. S. Bureau of Education, and during the war assisted the National Defense Council and the War Department's committee on special training.

JOB ANALYSIS. Dr. Capen suggests a process by which the student will be suitably fitted for the job he is to undertake on his graduation, by "job analysis." This, he says, will set children on the right road to their chosen trades or professions even before they enter college.

Some of the things wrong with education today, Dr. Capen lists as follows:

"1. The period devoted to elementary subjects is too long. Efficiency is offset by new subjects. Nor is there proof that such change has increased pupil's intellectual power.

"2. Secondary education begins too late and ends too soon. It is too diffuse and therefore superficial, providing very imperfectly for the preparation of those who straightaway must earn a livelihood.

"3. Fifty per cent of the work done in colleges of arts and sciences really belongs in the secondary schools. Thus it becomes necessary to provide teaching methods and discipline in college for immature boys and girls, rather than for men and women seriously entering upon preparation for their life work. There is a great waste of time in college.

"Ignoring for the moment the splendid achievements of the professional school, the first thing demanding correction is the fact that American enter upon professional careers at least two years later than citizens of other countries. This delay constantly is being increased by professional interests themselves. These interests seek to extend the time devoted to training and impose higher requirements without reference to their effect on the educational scheme as a whole.

"As improvements of our educational system, Dr. Capen suggests: "Admission to colleges and continuance there should depend on a process of selection for more searching than any that now prevails.

"As early as possible in the college course there should be provision of opportunities for independent study for the definite mastery of some field of knowledge.

"The college should adopt all means possible to place secondary education where it properly belongs, and enter into co-operation with the school systems from which the majority of its students come."

MINERS RAISING BIG FUND FOR EMERGENCY

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. — A special assessment is being gathered from all members of the United Mine Workers and it is hoped that more than $3,000,000 will have been raised by April 1, next, when the union's agreement with the operators ends.

Whether war between the miners and operators breaks out again, and the country is saddled with another strike is entirely up to the operators, union officials declare.

John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, on a recent tour of the anthracite section, while reluctant to discuss the possibility of another strike, said that the union positively would not accept any wage reduction April 1, when the present agreement in the bituminous field expires and that the union would stand by its demands for a continuation of the present wage scale for another two years.

INDIANS ASK $20,000,000 WORTH OF TEXAS LAND

HOUSTON, Texas. — Formal claim for possession of over 1,500,000 acres of land located in the Panhandle section of Texas, will be presented to the Texas Legislature at its next regular session in January, by attorneys for the Texas Cherokee and other kindred bands of Indians.

The huge tract of land involved is one of the richest portions of Texas and is valued at more than $200,000,000.

The land is dotted with thriving villages and is in the heart of one of the richest oil bearing sections in the United States.

The claim to this vast tract is based upon a treaty alleged to have been signed between the Indian tribes and representatives of the ex-Confederate Republic of Texas, nearly a century ago.

The action is brought by Mary Allen, the widow, as administratrix of the estate of her husband. HE HAD SUFFERED OVER A YEAR

Now Says Plant Juice Has Relieved Stomach of Bloating and Misery

HE IS GAINING IN WEIGHT

Lima people who had suffered for years and tried many medicines without any benefit and who had become skeptical of all remedies and thought they would never find anything to relieve them, are now flocking to The Plant Juice Man at Hunter's drug store.

MR. ROBERT MICHAEL

er's drug store, 49 Public Square, to hear him explain this remarkable new herbal remedy that has given relief in more than a million cases and which has caused lively discussions in more than 100 cities over the United States. Plant Juice has already brought surprising results in many Lima cases of stomach, liver and kidney troubles and the news has spread rapidly over the city until crowds are now calling to see The Plant Juice Man each day.

Just recently, Mr. Robert Michael, of 789 Oak street, a well known Lima man, was among those who called and he gave The Plant Juice Man the following surprising testimonial.

"For more than a year, I had suffered with my stomach and bowels," said Mr. Michael. "I had no appetite and what little food I ate caused me misery with my stomach. My bowels were in bad condition and I could not sleep right."

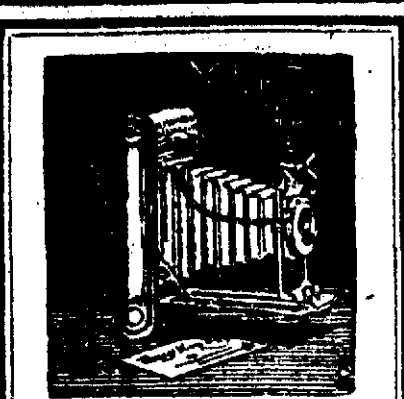

"I read about Plant Juice and the results others were getting from taking and I started taking it myself and it surely has done me a great deal of good. I can eat what I want now and do not suffer from bloating or misery with my stomach. My food tastes good and I am gaining weight. My bowels are in fine condition and I am able to sleep well. I'm sure glad to recommend your Plant Juice after what it did for me."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office. — Adv.

LIGHT FUND USED FOR OTHER COSTS

Commission to Pay General Bills, Cut Out Illumination

BIG SUM FOR STREET REPAIR

Repairs Held More Important Than Lighting

Eighteen hundred dollars in the boulevard light fund, sufficient to keep the lights burning until mid-night of February 5, 1923, was transferred from that fund by the city commission Monday night.

This money was in the fund for the purpose of keeping the boulevard lights burning and represents money saved by operating the circuits on the all night schedule during the past few months. C. A. Bingham, city manager, said.

It could have been used in keeping the all night circuits burning until after the first of the year instead of turning off the lights December 1, as has been decided upon, Bingham admitted.

"Our policy is to pay as we go," Bingham said, "and we decided it would be better to pay a number of the debts we owe merchants rather than leave the money in the fund and keep the lights burning."

Bills owing for stationery, incidentals, medical supplies, sewers, fuel, light and supplies and wages were paid by the transfer. The largest items are for sewers, wages and fuel, light and supplies.

Another discretionary move by the city commission is to be seen in the appropriations for street lighting and street repair for 1923.

NOTHING FOR LIGHTING

Street lighting, for which $48,400 was appropriated in 1922, will receive nothing in 1923 while street repair, which received only $1,400 in 1922, will receive $22,400 in 1923.

As the city will receive at least $20,000 from the automobile license fund for street repairs, it would be possible to confine its operations to that amount and release the $22,400 for such necessities as street lighting, Bingham admitted.

Cost of street lights at the minimum contracts is $42,600 a year, Bingham said recently. This is divided, $24,000 for arc lights, $9,000 for gas lights and $9,600 for the all night boulevard lights.

At this rate it would be possible to keep the street lights operating as at present until the middle of 1923 or he are lights for practically the entire year, it is pointed out.

Members of the city commission feel that street repair is more important than street lighting, especially as there is some work yet to be done on this year's program, Bingham said.

He admitted, however, that the holes now to be found in the pavements could be repaired from the automobile license fund, even the other patching work might not be possible if the $22,400 is transferred to street lights.

It is pointed out that as Lima citizens have been more or less accustomed to ragged streets in the past, they might be able to get along with them for another year or two if they could have street lights instead.

"I believe it would be better for the city commission to spend money for street lights than for street repair," a tax payer said Tuesday morning when informed of the provisions of the budget.

As a whole the appropriation budget represents a cut of $28,983 under that of 1922. Total appropriations will be $199,999, including an item of $11,500 which will be paid if money is available.

General expenses will be $40,010 as compared with $48,925 last year; health department $13,950, last year $17,100; safety $28,889, last year $26,165; public works $24,750, last year $26,622 and hospital and relief funds $11,500, if there is that much available as compared with $16,624 last year

DAMAGES NOUGHT

Jacob Watson, property owner near the North-st bridge petitioned the commission for the payment of damages alleged to have been sustained by his property during the building of the bridge.

It was decided by the commission to notify Watson that in the opinion of the investigation committee his land and been benefited rather than damaged and that he should pay the city rather than the city pay him.

A proposition for the various fire insurance agencies whereby a corps of experts appeal to make a survey of the city and aid in the elimination of all fire hazards was turned down by the commission.

These experts would be able to point out many ways in which the fire danger could be lessened in the city, J. J. Wyre, secretary of the Lima organization, pointed out.

City commissioners intimated they might reconsider the plan if more details of the personnel of the organization are given them.

Assessments of Pierce-st and Kentworth-st as previously estimated were asserted to be correct by the estimating board appointed to re-assess the property and attempt to eliminate several amounts objected to.

NEER HAS BITTER PILL FOR U. S.

Impress New Message to be Delivered Late Today

REFUSES TO SUGAR COAT

That 'Em Rough, Former French Premier's Polley

CHICAGO, (United Press)—Dr. Clemenceau today had a new and still more bitter pill for France to swallow. Those close to the jungle, foreman of the rumber will rise to a new high in his third formal American address at the Auditorium at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Up as the dawn's icy blasts swept in from Lake Michigan, and most of the city slept, Clemenceau was at the podium, polishing the potion he will deliver to America to take for its own good and "the peace of the world."

In his black skull cap and dressing gown, he was not unlike a chemist, working with starchy fountain pen instead of pestle and mortar.

REASONS ASSIGNED

Two reasons are assigned to the Tiger's determination to make today's speech stronger than any he has delivered:

1.—It may be, his friends say, that he feels that the message from his heart which he came personally at the age of 81 to deliver is not "getting across."

2.—Or it may be the reaction of a greater to the suggestion of his friends voiced on all sides that he "put up" and sugar coat his pills.

Whatever the reason, Clemenceau, a statesman, as he was a physician of the old school.

"That 'em rough," he once said, laughing, and now he is going to put it into practice.

HONORED BY CITY

The city that was but a tiny one when Clemenceau saw it, more than half a century ago, paid homage to its distinguished guest today.

Chicago in the Tiger's own words, has grown beyond all recognition since those days in the '60's when young Clemenceau stood on its threshold, but then so has the Tiger.

Something new, something perhaps startling, will be in the message delivered at the Auditorium, some friends and counselors of the veteran statesman, say.

The Tiger has remained adamant on the point that his message must ring clear; he has his claws unsheathed for battle; soft pats such as a great, friendly, jovial tiger might deliver, have no part in his scheme of things, despite since a scolding of friends.

When a tiger of the Indian jungle feels death coming on, it goes out and meets death fighting, whatever the odds.

"Something of this is in the gallant old Frenchman's attitude," he added. Clemenceau's speech today will be in a measure tuned to the ear of the middle west, whose voice, Chicago roared him, welcome upon his arrival here yesterday.

General Pershing met Clemenceau at the station, and the diminutive Frenchman hurried himself onto "Black Jack's" husky arms, exclaiming:

"How glad I am to see you again," just as they had not met since the armistice, altho the same scene was enacted at the Manhattan Opera House less than a week ago.

Mayor Thomson, not always over-sympathetic towards France, made the Tiger come to him for the city official welcome. Clemenceau rode around by way of the city hall and rode 11 flights up in an elevator to say "Hello" to the mayor.

But tho the French war premier's utterances may be tinged by assimilation of local atmosphere, it will be to the country at large that he is speaking. He has either something new to say, or a new way of saying the old, and worked steadily upon it today to the exclusion of many importunate well-wishers.

FORCES START FIGHT ON RAIL ABANDONMENT ORDER BEFORE UTILITIES BOARD

Application of municipalities on the Lima-Defiance branch of the Indiana, Columbus & Eastern traction line for a rehearing on the matter of abandoning service, was argued before the state utilities commission at Columbus Tuesday.

R. R. Trubey, general counsel for the objectors, presented evidence before the commission tending to show that the period of trial operation was during abnormal times.

He placed witnesses on the stand to show that the gross income of the division was growing and had shown a $1,000 gain for the months of August and September over the same months one year ago.

Trubey, in arguing before the commission, gave it as his opinion that if a six months' extension is allowed, the division will show a good profit.

The commission has handed down an order permitting the company to abandon service January 1, on three lines. The others are the Columbus, Orient and Carlisle-Carlyle Junction lines.

MATRIMONIAL MIX ENDS IN COURT

Woman Finds She Has Two Husbands; Seeks Divorce

One husband at a time is about all the average woman can expect to divorce.

But if an application for a decree filed by Goldie Larrick, 24, in common pleas court is granted, she will send two husbands to the scrapheap with one action.

The plaintiff, Mrs. Goldie Larrick, also is Mrs. Clyde Ford. Or at least she thought she was until one day she discovered Larrick was still her husband.

It all happened this way. Back in 1914, when a mere girl, the plaintiff married Eldon Larrick in Wilmington. One child, James Lewis, 8, now residing with his grandmother in Hillsboro, was born.

After a time Larrick went away. One day his wife received a letter stating she was free. Larrick had procured a divorce in Michigan, she was informed.

Believing herself again single, Goldie made her second matrimonial leap. This time with Clyde Ford. The ceremony was performed in Lima in 1920.

After a year's residence as Ford's wife, Goldie learned the letter was all wrong. She was still married to Larrick. Her second match didn't count, and the corner policeman might pinch her for bigamy—only he didn't know about it.

She packed her grip and fled. It seemed the only thing to do.

Now she is seeking to untangle her marital mixup thru court action.

BOARDING HOMES NEEDED FOR CHILDREN; DEMAND IS ACUTE, MISS TRUMBO SAYS

Boarding homes for children are in great demand at the present time, Miss Eunice S. Trumbo, supervisor for the Child Welfare association has announced.

There are many calls from homes which are open to children for adoption, but a shortage of homes where the children may be boarded for a few weeks is handicapping the work at the present time, she said.

Children from homes which have been broken up for some reason or another need homes and funds to pay a reasonable price for their care, she said.

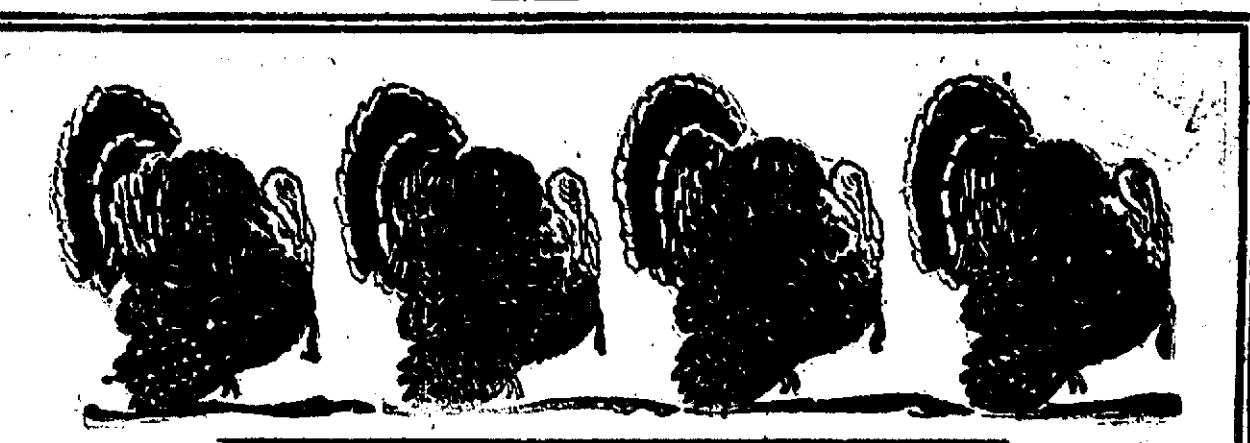

Many homes would be made brighter by the entrance of the children if even for only a short time, Miss Trumbo believes, and the payments would to a great extent cover the cost of their care.

Any families who would be willing to make room for one or more of the children now under the jurisdiction of the Child Welfare association should call the offices of the association in Memorial Hall for further information.

FRANCE READY TO INVADE GERMANY

Plan to Seize Ruhr District up Before Cabinet

BODY'S APPROVAL EXPECTED

Aimed as Solution of Reparations Question

PARIS — (Associated Press) — The intention of France to "pay herself" in Germany comes before a full meeting of the cabinet today.

A plan for direct action thru the seizure of part of the Ruhr district and absolute control of the French section of the Rhineland, which was considered and approved at yesterday's meeting of military and civil authorities at the Elysee Palace, will be submitted for final approval. There no longer is much faith here in any inter-allied solution of the reparations question, even tho the Brussels conference is held.

Marshal Foch is understood to have told President Millerand and Premier Poincare at yesterday's meeting that a plan for expanding the military occupation of the right bank of the Rhine had been prepared with the utmost care and that it could be executed within 24 hours notice. M. Tardieu, the French high commissioner for the Rhineland, in discussing his part in any necessary action, said that civil administration of the territory occupied by France on the left bank of the Rhine could be immediately taken over by competent French authorities.

APPLICABLE JANUARY 15
This program would be applicable only after January 15, for Germany now has a moratorium until the end of December and the first payment under the existing scheme of reparations, now in suspension, would be due in the middle of January.

Germany's failure to meet this payment would, in the opinion of the French, automatically give them the right to act.

Premier Poincare's purpose in his appeal to the nation last Sunday to submerge party feelings in "sacred union" in support of the government, now in session.

This drastic program of action naturally hinges upon the outcome of the Brussels conference but there is such doubt that the meeting would reach a satisfactory decision on the reparations question or that it will even be held, that the French think it wise to prepare now for a contingency which many think is reasonably certain of being faced at the end of the year.

France is now ready "to go it alone," acting on the theory that if she ever expects to get anything from Germany, she must, as the French newspapers say, hit Germany hard in the Ruhr, her most vulnerable spot.

This is specifically stated in apparently inspired reports of yesterday's Elysee meetings, given only to French newspapers. In these articles it is explained that action in the Ruhr would be designed "to strike the hardest blow at the interests of the great heads of German mining and metal industries as well as to obtain for France the full quota of reparation coal and coke which she needs for the full development of the Lorraine iron industry."

Complete control of the French sector of the Rhineland would accomplish the much desired expulsion of German officials, many of whom, the French believe, are Prussians recently come into the region with the intention of strengthening resistance to the allied occupation.

The French experts calculated last summer before the big drop in German exchange that the Ruhr metal industries sent out products valued at 578,000,000,000 paper marks, so that if a custom barrier were thrown around the Ruhr and even a small export tax imposed it would yield several million gold marks annually.

COMMISSION PASSES ON KENTON'S GAS APPEAL

COLUMBUS — The state public utilities commission is believed to have established precedents in figuring rates for natural gas in municipalities in deciding the appeal today of the Hardin-Wyandotte Lighting Company from the ordinance of the City of Kenton, fixing gas rates.

In the first place, tho the gas company had established that its annual operating expense was about $12,000 the commission held that the operation cost was excessive and allowed only $9,000 per year for such purpose.

In the second instance, the commission fixed 13 percent as the amount allowed the company for leakage.

The ordinance rates were 40 per 1000 cubic feet and 60 cents minimum monthly charge. The commission allowed rates of 70 cents for each. The company had asked for approximately a $1 rate.

WOULD END CONGRESSMAN'S TERM SOON AS DEFEATED
WASHINGTON — The present practice under which senators and representatives continue to sit in congress for four months after they have been defeated for re-election would be abandoned under an amendment to the constitution reported out today by the senate agriculture committee.

By unanimous vote the committee decided to bring into the senate a resolution providing for such an amendment, which would require that a new congress take office immediately after it had been elected instead of in the March following.

Little discussion preceded the committee's action, taken after it had been decided to postpone action definitely on the resolution of Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, to prohibit congressional "chambers" from voting on other than routine legislation or holding committee chairmanships.

PARDON GRANTED
COLUMBUS — Clarence W. Sellers, 25, serving a one to seven year sentence in the Ohio penitentiary from Washington-co. for larceny, was granted a pardon yesterday by Governor Davis. Sellers is in a serious condition as the result of tuberculosis. He was admitted to the institution April 19 of this year.

MRS. HALL WAITS ON GRAND JURY

Appears at Court House, Seeking Hearing Before Body

SOMERVILLE, N. J. — (United Press) — With Mrs. Frances Noel Hall sitting at the door of the grand jury room, awaiting a chance to demand a hearing, Mrs. Jane Gibson today told the investigators her eyewitness story of the Hall-Mills murder.

Entering the jury room, Mrs. Gibson walked within a few feet of Mrs. Hall whom she asserts she saw at the scene of the tragedy the night of September 14.

The widow did not twitch a muscle of her face or shift her gaze as the "grawittees" passed. She ignored her completely. Miss Sally Peters who was sitting beside Mrs. Hall glanced at the witness, then whispered to Attorney Pfeiffer.

Mrs. Gibson was flanked by state police as she paraded down the corridor to the jury chamber.

Her testimony was secret but if she has not altered her tale, she told the jurors she was riding her mule in Lovers' Lane on the abandoned Phillips farm September 14, and that in the glare of an automobile headlight she recognized Mrs. Hall standing by the road.

A few minutes later, she has stated, she witnessed the slaying of the Rev. Hall and his "wonder heart," Mrs. Eleanor Mills. Later in the night, Mrs. Gibson asserts she returned to the scene and saw a woman weeping over the bodies. She alleges this woman was Mrs. Hall.

As Mrs. Gibson gave her testimony behind the closed and guarded doors, Mrs. Hall continued her "picketing" of the grand jury entrance, without a sign of emotion. She appeared almost affable as she chatted with Miss Peters and her lawyer. Various officials connected with the investigation, all of whom know Mrs. Hall by sight, passed in and out of the jury room at intervals. They paid no attention to the widow, never glancing in her direction. Mrs. Hall returned the compliment, ignoring everybody.

VOTERS MAKE UP OWN TICKET
Decided by Men, Not Party, Writer Says
INDEPENDENCE EMPHASIZED
Postmortem of November Contest is Order of Day

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—The alibi and the postmortem are the order of the day among the "wings" who were "winged" in congressional elections.
"How did it ever happen to me?" they have begun asking themselves. The answers are interesting, and they point a moral to politicians who are crying to profit by the mistakes of 1922, so that they will not fall in 1924.

Examination of the causes underlying the defeat of some of the veterans who had long occupied places of prominence in the senate emphasizes, first of all, the new independence of American voters.
Before the election it was apparent that the public was not following national issues. After the election it was clear that national issues were almost wholly neglected and that men stood or fell almost entirely upon their records and their political personalities.

In Ohio, Pomeroy, a Democratic leader of the highest standing and recognized ability, was snowed under by a Democratic state victory.
In Nebraska, the dyes beat Senator Hitchcock, another Democrat, whose senatorial record seemed no blot. Nebraska, too, elected a Democratic governor.
New York, Al Smith was elected governor over Nathan L. Miller largely because "Al" projected his personality so strongly that the voters could not resist him. The New York campaign was based on state and national issues.

PRIMARY THE ISSUE
Senator Borah's Idaho campaign, though it did not involve his seat in the senate, was another example of the way the voters this year followed men they believed in. Borah faced the organized opposition of his party leaders in an effort to get the Senatorial primary restored, in place of the convention system. So potent was the appeal to the voters that it became evident long before election day that no matter what the complexion of the next legislature, Idaho would have a primary law. And the Republican gubernatorial candidate was forced, in the end, to recant his opposition and to agree, tacitly, that he would sign the primary law.

Senator Lodge ran into the new independence of the voters in a way startling to him. Gov. Channing Cox was re-elected governor by 50,000 or more. Lodge barely got thru. In the old days, Lodge nearly always had the ticket. But this year the voters made up their own tickets, and didn't just put a cross under the party emblem, accepting the selections of party leaders.

Every Gobble Marks Approach Of Barnyard King's Fated End

Lives of Thousands Threatened in Allen-Co and Vicinity

THANKSGIVING DAY NEAR

Festive Occasion to Open Long Period of Joy

Lives of thousands in Lima and vicinity are threatened by the menacing hand of fate—(thousands of turkeys).

Their day of doom is approaching so rapidly that every gobble is but a tick of the clock nearer the approaching finale.

Dark clouds warning of the approaching day of doom cast a malevolent shadow over every monarch of every barnyard.

It comes later this year than in many years past, on the last Thursday in this month, incidentally, the last day of the month as well.

WHAT IT MEANS
All of which means that: Christmas will be but twenty-five days away.

The football season will be over. South and Central will have settled their annual gridiron feud.

Scores of youngsters stuffed tighter than the traditional turkey and plum pudding, will complain of tummy aches for days to come.

The week will mark the definite opening of the winter season, joyous and gay, despite the grey shroud of death for Demeter's children, which is cast over everything green while King Winter bestows his magic flakes of white snow.

Lima will enter upon a period of festivity beginning with Thanksgiving day, brought to a high pitch Christmas, marked by Bacchic revelry New Years Eve, descending into dignified sobriety during the month of president characterized by a flash of color when St. Patrick is revered, pulsating with emotion as Valentines gift thru the mails, and finally giving way to the mild fervor of spring when the Queen of May is crowned on the first day of the month of flowers.

Such is the program for Lima. But at present, minds both young and old are obsessed with the feast, so near at hand.

Indications here are that delicacies will be plentiful on the boards of many Lima homes.

Turkeys are quoted by meat shops at 65 cents per pound, dressed. Cranberries are on the menu at 20 cents the quart. Other necessities for the occasion are to be had at prices which have remained almost stationary for the past few weeks.

OBSERVANCE PLANNED

Private and public parties are being planned for a proper observance of the day. Dances will begin the night before. Banquets and dinner parties will be numerous.

Church services will be characterized by special sermons and prayer on the eventful day.

Stores and shops in the city will be closed to give employees an opportunity to participate in the festivities. There will be no mail delivered on that day. Windows in the postoffice will be open between the hours of 9 a. m. and 10 a. m.

Thanksgiving day will also mark the opening of the Christmas season. Stores are planning to remain open certain nights in the week for the convenience of Christmas shoppers.

After Thursday the prevailing slogan will be—
?? days to Christmas.

FIGHT LAUNCHED AGAINST ANTI-LYNCHING MEASURE

WASHINGTON—The promised anti-administration filibuster in the senate is on.

Southern Democrats, uniting with the strong progressive element of the upper chamber, rallied today for the first attack on the Dyer anti-lynching bill when it was thrust before the upper house of congress by Republican leaders.

Practically the same group which has announced its opposition to the ship subsidy is banded together to "talk the Dyer bill to death." And their threats have borne such great warning that it is indicated the Republican chieftains may withdraw the measure within a few days and make no effort to press it to final passage at this time.

LODGE NOTICES

Lincoln Court, No. 237, Tribe of Ben Hur will hold its annual Thanksgiving meeting Wednesday in Central Hall. Members, their husbands, wives and children under 12 years of age are invited. Dinner will be served at 7 p. m.

RENEW ATTACK ON EVIL FORCES

Evangelist to Preach on "Incarnation" Tonight

REED ENTERTAINS KIDDIES

Heavy Paper Covers Temple Walls, Excluding Cold

Dr. W. E. Biederwolf, evangelist, after a full day's rest, is ready to swing into action again tonight in the big pine tabernacle, attacking the forces of evil and bringing Lima right about face.

The evangelist is well satisfied with the results of his work here thus far, covering a period of two weeks and is ready for the opening of the third week of activity.

According to announcement made Tuesday, the evangelist has an unusually interesting list of sermon subjects for the week. Tonight he will preach on "The Incarnation of Christ."

COLD EXCLUDED

The problem of adequately heating the interior of the tabernacle has been finally disposed of, it was announced Tuesday, with the completion of the work of covering the outer walls of the pine temple with heavy paper, to exclude cold winds.

The work of covering the walls was finished Monday night.

Bad habits, including swearing, reading bad literature, growing angry over nothing, laziness, carelessness, lying and a host of other things, were all thrown into a can at the tabernacle Tuesday afternoon by John Ross Reed, in demonstrating morals to thousands of school children in the pine temple.

The public schools were closed earlier than usual Tuesday afternoon, to afford the children an opportunity to be on hand at the tabernacle promptly at 4 p. m. to enjoy Reed's show.

ENTERTAINS WITH MAGIC Will Take Off All Excess Fat

Do you know that there is a simple, harmless, effective remedy for over-fatness that may be used solely and secretly by any man who is losing the slimness of youth? There is, and it is none other than the tablet form of the now famous Marmola Prescription, known as Marmola Prescription Tablets. You can well expect to reduce steadily and easily without going through long sieges of tiresome exercise and starvation diet. Marmola Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists the world over at one dollar for a case, or you can secure them direct from the Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich., on receipt of price.—Adv.

a success. It was the climax of many visits the entertainer, John Ross Reed, has made to the schools of Lima.

The meeting was opened by a song service. The school children evinced a great interest in singing many of the beautiful religious songs. John Ross Reed gave several solos.

Reed explained many things to the children by magic object lessons. By the use of a colored handkerchief which he transformed into a beautiful white one, he showed them how their sinful lives can be transformed by the help of their Heavenly Father, into clean, white, pure lives.

BLANK RELEASED

Habeas Corpus Writ Gets Results for Youth

Walter J. Blank, 19, 1044 Bellefontaine-av, jailed for 10 days by Judge Emmett J. Jackson, on a charge of disorderly conduct, was freed Monday night.

A writ of habeas corpus, obtained before Judge Jesse H. Hamilton by Ed Blank, attorney, was the key that opened iron barred doors for young Blank.

Blank was arrested at the Hudson Lunch, charged with creating a disturbance. He was arraigned and tried before Judge Emmett J. Jackson and sentenced to serve 10 days in jail and pay a $25 fine.

In the petition filed with the court praying for a writ, it was alleged that no jury was procured for the trial and that the defendant did not waive his rights.

For this alleged omission, it is contended that the conviction and commitment are illegal. A hearing will be held before Judge Hamilton on December 6.

The Lima News Keeps You Posted on Society and Its Affairs

The ordinary "society page" is read not so much by those whose activities contribute to it, as it is by the countless thousands who have no social aspirations at all. These thousands are keenly (and humanly) concerned about a phase of life in which they play no part, and they follow not with envy but with genuine interest the doings of the social elect. It is a well justified compliment to say of The Lima News, that its daily society and fashion page is followed as closely by society itself as it is by the mass of interested observers.

It is because The Lima News social editors know society and its foibles, and the frequency of our "scoops" and the authority of our predictions make this page of The Lima News indispensable to nearly every reader of the newspaper.

The News literally is a mirror in which society sees itself as it is, and which also reflects for the rest of us an equally clear picture.

So really to know Lima society you must read The News.

20 GALLONS BOOZE CONFISCATED

Officers Nab Alleged Liquor Law
Violator Near Delphos

MAN IS BROUGHT TO LIMA

Will be Arraigned Here on Old
Charge

When three officers approached the home of Alphonse DeMeerler, 55, a mile and a half north of Delphos on the Ottoville rd., Monday afternoon for the purpose of staging a liquor raid, he met them in the doorway with a loaded shotgun, according to the raiders.

Deputy Sheriff Clarence Fraunfelder and Loral Baskett, chief of police, Henry Krehres and Patrolman Fred Bailey, Delphos, persuaded DeMeerler to lay down his weapon and arrested him before confiscating 20 gallons of illicit liquor and a large quantity of unfinished product.

The liquor including 62 bottles of beer, two ten-gallon kegs partially filled with whisky, a five-gallon jug and other receptacles was taken to Delphos with a 30-gallon still and minor appliances necessary for hooch manufacture.

The outfit was completely dismantled by the officers, a plate down to a bottle capper, a heater and corer for the jugs, officers said. Two hundred gallons of much was destroyed.

ADVISERS 4-11-17

DeMeerler was arraigned before Mayor J. H. Williams at Delphos and pleaded guilty to a charge of manufacturing illicit liquor. He was fined $500 which he was unable to pay. He was brought to Lima to face another charge resulting from a raid on his home in this city in September.

DeMeerler, a Belgian, is said to have removed from Lima after police raided his home and found a quantity of liquor. He was not at home at the time. DeMeerler resided in a ramshackle house with his wife and two small children.

His arraignment here was delayed because of the absence of Judge Emmet Jackson in whose court the warrant on the Lima charge was issued.

GOOD COOPERATION IN EDUCATION WEEK SHOWN BY PASTORS AT DELPHOS

Response to requests sent out by School Superintendent H. P. Hick of Delphos, relative to observance of Education Week December 3-9, is being given. He urged ministers to preach on the subject at service Sunday. Rev. Frederick Rupert, pastor of St. John's Catholic church, stated in a communication to Hick that education will be the keynote of sermons in his church Sunday.

Similar response by other Delphos ministers will be given. The sermons will pave the way to observance of the week. The Kiwanis club Monday will feature it in its regular weekly program.

Object of the week is to focus attention of all people in all states upon education and to build up state and national sentiment for the improvement of schools and furtherance of desirable educational aims.

Clubs and other organizations of Delphos will dwell on Education Week in their meetings next week. Judging from preparations at the present time, Delphos will do its bit toward lowering the percentage of illiteracy in the United States, which in the 1920 census showed that of the total population six per cent of those above ten years of age were illiterate.

LEADERS FOR CHRISTMAS

Louis Oelberg and Henry Kaverman are in charge of distributing literature for the campaign. They began work Tuesday. Committees named by Miss Grace Kline, campaign director, will have charge of the business and residential sections of the city.

MAN IN CASE IS SHIELDED

Shot to Death in Prominent Bachelor's Apartment

PARIS. (United Press)—Burial of Miss Rose Shannessy, pretty American girl of Minneapolis, was delayed at the request of the American consulate today pending further investigation of her mysterious death in the apartment of a prominent bachelor here.

Miss Shannessy was found dying of bullet wounds, at first thought to have been self-inflicted. The death apartment is owned by the nephew of a Paris evening paper owner.

Altho she is said to have been originally from Minneapolis the girl's passports show she came here from Hong Kong. The state department at Washington is asked to ascertain where passports previous to that were issued.

APARTMENT SEALED

Paris police sealed Miss Shannessy's own apartment immediately after her death and altho her body was taken to the morgue November 21, the tragedy was not made public until November 23.

Police refused to reveal the name of the "man in the case" because of his prominent connections.

They did reveal, however, that the publisher's nephew, grief stricken, brought the girl's body to the hospital. He told attaches that she had shot herself when he told her he intended to marry another girl.

Attaches of the prefect's office scurried about excitedly as the American consulate injected itself in the case. Hints that Miss Shannessy was of a prominent family were given out at the consulate. Both police and hospital attaches commented on the beauty of the dead girl.

CONTESTS KEEP BOYS ON FARMS

CHICAGO.—(Special)—Keeping Broadway's bright lights away from Main street is the job Guy L. Noble here is holding down.

As Secretary of the National Committee of Boys' and Girls' Club Work, Noble has been entrusted with the all-important task of preserving American agriculture from the lure of the city.

He does it by interesting the boys and girls of the country in farming, stock raising, poultry care, canning and other subjects relating to the soil thru a series of agricultural contests, the prize for which will be a free trip to Europe.

Some 60,000 rural clubs have joined this nation-wide contest. Local contests have been held thruout the country and the winners pitted against others in elimination contests for the final prizewinners. The final contest will be held here from Dec. 2 to the 9th.

COAL ADMINISTRATION FAILS

OHIO'S fuel administration is to be given the boot when Vic Donahey assumes the reins of authority as Governor of Ohio. This according to information released in Columbus.

What has actually occurred since the legislature was called into extraordinary session a few months ago by Governor Harry L. Davis, is the strongest sort of argument in favor of the decision Governor-elect Donahey is said to have arrived at.

Dissipation of the fuel administration would be a part of the Donahey program of economy—cutting out non-essentials that are a burden rather than a benefit. Leaving out of consideration the cost of the legislative session that authorized the governor to create such a body; forgetting the big salaries that have been paid to Administrator Clarence Neal and his array of aides; passing up the high cost of palatial quarters for the commission in a Columbus hotel, where the furnishings rival those of a presidential office suite—censuring to worry or have concern about any or all of these things, the big argument that militates against its continuation still remains.

Before the coal administration scheme was conceived by the governor, or after he permitted himself to be obsessed with the idea that such a thing was necessary, the price of coal was not exorbitant. Under the guise of bringing about a still lower price, legislative action and gubernatorial appointments followed. Before the commission had time to act, the price of fuel to consumers was advanced.

Then, after considerable parley and delay, a so-called "fair price" was fixed, over and above the then prevailing market quotations. Nor is that all. Threat was made of another advance and it came during the present month.

The so-called fuel administration is about as useless, worthless and costly a piece of government machinery as one could well imagine. Governor Donahey will be performing a real service to the people of Ohio, the coal producers included, if he issues an order that will make it a matter of history. It has proven its uselessness, so far as being a benefit to the people.

GIVE THE BOY A SQUARE DEAL

AROUND factories, offices, stores and any other places where people work together, a thing frequently noticed by visitors is the hard-boiled attitude of grownups toward the boys who are on the payroll.

The boss usually is sublimed and treated to as if he were a sacred cow. Miss Patsy Plush, the beautiful typist, gets a lot of fawning consideration. And even the male grownups treat each other with a mutual deference or respect, despite a considerable amount of facetious joshing.

But when it comes to the boy who works around the place—well, when he's called and commanded, it generally sounds as if he were a trained dog that had to be handled roughly on the theory that, give him an inch he'll take a mile.

Rough treatment, lack of consideration, and a stern rebuke are difficult for a grown-up to "swallow"—despite the callouses accumulated by the sensibilities during years of toil and contact with the hostile pack that are trying to get the same dollar we're after ourselves.

The boy, fresh from home and just striking out for himself, has none of these callouses. His nature is sensitive, without insulation. And making him the target of the unnecessary sharp word or lack of consideration is about the lowest-down act that the so-called human being is guilty of.

When it comes to girls, a thousand times more so.

Maybe you remember, years ago, the heartaches and spiritual injuries and disappointments that were yours when you first began making your own living. Probably there were things that occasionally brought a few tears to your eyes.

If we all kept this memory fresh before us, the boys who work today would get a better deal.

Considering the harsh and thoughtless treatment that most boys get on their first jobs, it's no wonder that so many of them grow up brutal, cynical and defiant toward their fellows.

You can tell how much of real manhood there is in a grown-up, by the way he treats the boys who work around him. And you can spot the bully, roughing the lads in a way he'd not have the courage to try on men his own size.

One senator is sure that force be used against coal hoarders. We suggest the force be a police force.

THE FIRST THREE YEARS

Grampy, with his chorule bronchitis or winter cough, was as regular as taxes and as wrong in his conventional notions of the cause of the trouble and the ways of health as a testimonial writer. It took three years, mostly winters, of eloquence and logic, not to say nagging, by the doctor to impart the first rudiments of a common sense hygiene. Grampy finally came to believe that clothing is something to be worn for comfort, winter and summer, and not for armor against "taking cold," and he had to admit after an exhaustive scientific consideration of all the textile materials used for underwear, that for a man of sedentary indoor life a fairly light weight, porous (that is, sort of a stockinette machine knitted stuff, and not tightly woven flannel or fleece lined stuff) woolen union suit, with socks of about the same material, offered the greatest comfort indoors and out.

Being regular, the patient had been in the habit of wearing a curious contrivance of red flannel—why red, it would be a puzzle to determine, but perhaps because red is the danger signal—cut in the outline of a shield, and Grampy rather shamefacedly confessed to the doctor that this contraption was a "chest protector." He was influenced to discard the "chest protector" more by the argument that it was an uncleanly thing than by any belief that it actually tended to impair his natural resistance to infection. Being regular, again, he was one of those individuals who imagine that body warmth and comfort come from external heat, artificial warmth, rather than from within. With this idea uppermost in mind it is not strange that an invalid with trouble he imagines was caused by "cold" in the first place should be inclined to wear more clothing than comfort really called for, especially upon the throat and chest where he childishly fancied the cold might "penetrate." It was a great day for the doctor, therefore, when Grampy first ventured out for his constitutional sensibly, even lightly attired, notwithstanding the blustering weather. The doctor espied his difficult patient heating it up the avenue at a fine gait, swinging his stick as blithely as any young buck, without a sign of a muffler about his throat or over shoes or any of those timorous appendages of the wayward valetudinarian. "Well, well," he said to himself, "it looks as though we were getting Grampy's goat. He is sleeping nights with two bed room windows wide open, and taking his oxygen shooft day times. He's pretty well broken of the cod-dling habit and real or imaginary drafts no longer send him scurrying for cover. We must try now what a little sensible dieting will do for that boy and maybe broach the subject of autogenous vaccines. They give the itch seven years in Indiana. I wonder if bronchitis really must run on forever."

If there is anything in this idea of "live and learn" a man at 74 ought to begin to have glimmerings of intelligence, and yet so few of us live comfortably. Grampy did, reluctantly. And to hear him telling about it nowadays—as he usually is—one would imagine Grampy chose the way and led the doctor on after him. That's another peculiarity of the psychology of the older boys. If

HEALTHY IRE

The I've preached that merry laugh, is a thing worth seeking after, And enlarged upon the virtues of a smile.

There are times when it is fitter that our wrath grow hot and bitter, When surrounding circumstances call for bile.

Anger has its healthy uses in abolishing abuses, Which good humor is too patient to resent, And a lot of great upheavals which have knocked out ancient evils Are results of incandescent discontent.

There are people, for example, who incontinently trample On the rights of any smiling-visaged bunch, But who rapidly retire from the grim, unsmiling ire Of the scrappy lad who packs a peppy punch.

There is often lots of merit motto, "Grim and bear When you find a heap of in your path, But considered as a nation too much toleration, And we smile at things w to view with wrath.

MRS. LUAN M. BUTLER, W. Spring-st., extended the hospitality of her home to the members of The Lima Arts' club, Monday evening. The gathering was the largest and most interesting yet held.

The election of officers for this enthusiastic and rapidly growing organization was one of the important features of the meeting. Dr. Forster Robinson, who was nominated president, declined the nomination, stating that it would be impossible for him to devote sufficient time to this office because of his other duties. The election of a president was deferred until the next meeting. A second vice-president and assistant treasurer will also be chosen at this time.

Officers, who were elected at Monday's meeting were Mrs. Frank Bell, first vice-president; Miss Marjette Day, recording secretary; Miss Esther Roberts, corresponding secretary and B. Harley Holmes, treasurer.

A permanent place for future meetings was discussed but no decision was made.

The charter membership list of the club will remain open until the first of the year. All persons desiring admittance to the club after this date must conform with the constitution of the club.

The Lima Arts' club will resemble a departmental club, which will include the following departments: Music, sculpture, art, literature, dramatics, painting and home economics.

Each department will elect its own head and hold its own meetings. Meetings of the entire department will be held once every two months or oftener.

At the close of the business session an enjoyable program was presented. Miss Margaret Gregg sang, "My Garden" by Mary Turner. Selzer and the "Two Magicians" by Pearl Curran. Miss Mary K. Roby played the piano accompaniment.

Three artistic piano numbers by Arthur Farwell were played by Mrs. Betty Brice Wilson. Mrs. Wilson is a sister-in-law of the composer.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: I AM deeply in love with my wife but she has one serious fault and that is that she gossips. She is always talking with some one over the back fence and this worries me as I have always been told that I have scolded and scolded but it doesn't seem to do any good. What would you suggest and what is your opinion of women who gossip?

WORRIED. G OSSIP is always to be avoided both in talking and in listening. But are you absolutely certain that your wife and the neighbors do gossip? They may be talking about a great many things that are in no way akin to gossip. Don't make such a fuss about it. Remember that your wife is a human being and can think for herself—she isn't a child who must be corrected and advised.

Dear Miss Smart: (1) What are the meanings of the following names: (a) Bertha, (b) Mary, (c) Marguerite, (d) Henry, (e) Ruth, (f) Florence, (g) Irene, (h) Walter and (i) Ada? (2) How long does any girl or any boy have to go to school? (3) Are girls of 14 and 15 too young to go with the boys? (4) What will make my hair thick? It is very thin and thin.

ANXIOUS. (1) (a) Bright, (b) bitter, (c) pearl, (d) chief of a house, (e) beauty, (f) flowers, (g) peace, (h) ruling the host and (i) happiness. (2) The law requires that a girl or boy attend school until they have attained their 16th year. After then if they wish to discontinue their school work it is necessary for them to attend night school two nights during the week until their 18th year. (3) A little young I think. (4) Clip the ends of the hair about every three months. Keep the pores of the scalp open and free by massaging. Brush the hair every night with a soft brush, after which apply the following: (thirty parts of distilled water, 10 parts of alcohol, three parts of glycerin and five parts of bay rum.

Dear Miss Smart: Will you please tell me the meanings of the following names: (a) Violet, (b) Sarah, (c) Charlotte, (d) Wilhelmina, (e) Sunshine, (f) Prudence, (g) not a name, (h) resolute and (i) not a name.

(a) A violet, (b) prudence, (c) not a name, (d) resolute and (e) not a name.

Members of the Philomathean club were delightfully entertained by Miss Helen Longworth, Lakewood-av., at a Thanksgiving party, Monday evening.

A taffy pull, games, contests and various informal diversions were the pleasures of the evening and at a late hour a buffet luncheon was served. Guests other than members were Miss Esther Williams, Miss Katherine Sharkey and Miss Lois Thomas.

Next meeting will be held with Mrs. Willard Price, W. North-st.

The Appeal of a Child

BY ZOE BECKLEY

Father and son stared sternly at each other.

"Alice—thinks what?" said Barrett, his look intensifying. Junior was in an agony of indecision, crushed between what he felt and the impossibility of giving it form.

"Not in so many words, father. But she looks so—flattered out—and so determined. You know how pig-headed Alice can be. She's deep—for a girl. She gets so deathly set on things."

"Where is she now?" "Downstairs. Came with me. Wants to see you."

Barrett took up the telephone. "Find Miss Alice Barrett. Ask her to come up. What? Oh, yes, I know club rules, but she's my daughter. . . . Thanks."

Junior turned as his father put down the telephone. "She'll want to see you alone. I'll blow," he muttered, and left the room.

Barrett sat without stirring till his daughter came in without a sound. He rose and took her hands. They were cold. Her face, sensitive, suffering, was paper-pale. Her blue eyes were darkly shadowed, gaudy with nervousness.

"Why, my little girl—" His faltering speech ended there. "Father, what are you going to do? You are going—away?"

He led her to the couch and they both sat stiffly apart. Barrett felt his forehead grow damp, his throat dry.

"Alice—if I had to die to save you—I'd do it. But going on at home—as we have been going on—can do you no good. If I, alone, could make you happy, I'd do it. Do you think it would make you happy for your mother and me to go on as we have?"

"I don't know." "She has said she wants to end it."

Mrs. A. A. Dole, S. Collett-st., extended the hospitality of her home to the members of the Twentieth Century club, Monday evening.

Members responded to roll call with current events. A splendid paper on "Accidental Luxuries" was presented by Mrs. John Davidson. A committee, which will have charge of the Christmas basket to be prepared by the club members, was appointed. Miss Fenstermaker, Warren was the only guest.

Next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. L. H. Rogers, Home-aces.

Mrs. D. H. Sullivan, W. North-st., welcomed the members of the View club at her home, Monday afternoon. Mrs. M. U. Basinger was the assistant hostess.

Responses to roll call were on current events. Mrs. Clark Miller had the magazine article and Mrs. W. J. Fitzgerald presented a paper on the subject, "Women of the Bible." A dainty repast was served at the close of the program.

Next meeting will be held with Mrs. T. E. Drake, S. Collett-st.

Meeting of the Zenda Shen club, which was to have been held Wednesday with Miss Betty Dugan, W. Market-st., has been postponed.

Miss Gertrude Boose, W. Market-st., was hostess to the members of the Delta Sigma sorority, Monday evening.

Plans were discussed for a dinner to be given during the holidays for the pleasure of the members of the sorority. Plans were also made for the Christmas baskets, which will be prepared by the sorority members. Mrs. Kenneth Kerr (Charlotte Sieber), Wilmington was present at the meeting.

Miss Eloise Cunningham, S. Collett-st., will entertain the sorority in three weeks.

Miss Mary Esther Dentley, Lakewood-av., will leave Tuesday evening for Birmingham, Pa., where she will visit over Thanksgiving with her sister, Miss Jane Bentley, a student at the Birmingham School for Girls.

One of the attractive social functions of the week was a bridge-ten Monday afternoon, at which Mrs. Frank Manning Hill, W. Elm-st., entertained a group of guests.

Baskets filled with lavender and yellow chrysanthemums were prettily arranged thruout the rooms, where seven tables were laid for bridge. In the playing, Mrs. O. J. Dietrick held high score.

A color scheme of lavender and yellow prevailed in the appointments for the tea and lavender nut baskets were presented as favors.

Miss Gail Parmenter, W. Spring-st., will leave Wednesday for Cincinnati, where she will remain over Thanksgiving.

YOUR THANKSGIVING DINNER

How to Select and Cook That Turkey—And Other Fixin's

By BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH

In choosing a turkey do not be guided entirely by appearance. Many a homely turkey has proved delicious when eaten. Generally speaking, it is wise to buy a turkey weighing not over 12 pounds, and many prefer a hen turkey to a gobler. A loose jointed bird is always tenderest.

The stuffing flavors the meat more uniformly if it is put into the bird the night before it is to be roasted.

A word regarding the stuffing. There are many different kinds of stuffings, although all have a bread or cracker foundation. In New England, crackers, or cracker and bread crumbs mixed, have been thought to make a most excellent stuffing, especially when hot milk is used to moisten the crumbs. Some do not care for a moist stuffing, but wish the bread crumbled and moistened with melted butter or bacon fat, and seasoned with salt and pepper. A baker's loaf of bread soaked in water and then squeezed dry, makes a good stuffing, not as dry as the one just described, nor yet as moist as some.

Seasonings to suit individual taste may be added. Some cooks cook the giblets in water, finely chop them, and add to the bread, using the water in which they were cooked to moisten the stuffing. Some like to use sausage meat for flavor. Some put just thyme, others like sage, and still others put mixed seasonings in all stuffings.

Oysters added to a bread stuffing give a flavor which many think very good. The large Italian chestnuts, when shelled, boiled and mashed, make a stuffing the flavor of which cannot be improved, in some people's opinion.

If stuffing is to be served sliced with cold turkey, an egg added when making is an improvement.

A ten-pound turkey is better if roasted for two and one-half to three hours, and frequent basting will be the secret of a beautiful brown, crisp outside.

If the turkey has any inside fat near the vent, remove, wash, and place on legs, when putting in the oven.

Do not add water for the first half hour, unless the oven is so hot that the skin will become too dark a brown immediately.

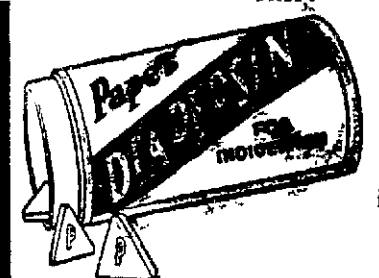

Place giblets in water and boil, and use that water for basting the turkey. When the giblets are tender, pour remainder of water into the pan with the turkey, and chop the giblets to add to the gravy.

OYSTER STUFFING
2 dozen oysters
1 quart bread crumbs
1-2 cup butter
1 small onion finely chopped
1 tablespoon salt
1-2 teaspoon pepper

Melt butter and in it cook the onion, without browning, for five minutes. Add to bread crumbs with the oysters, which have been cleaned and are free from any bits of shell. Season with salt and pepper, adding more if necessary. This amount of stuffing will be sufficient for a medium-sized turkey.

30 chestnuts (the large Italian chestnut)
1 small onion, finely chopped
1-2 pound sausage meat
1 tablespoon salt
1-4 teaspoon pepper
1-4 teaspoon thyme
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1 1-2 cups fresh bread crumbs
Shell and blanch the chestnuts, by cooking in boiling water for 20 minutes. Put blanched chestnuts in boiling water and cook until soft. Mash one-half of the chestnuts and add to bread crumbs with seasonings; cook sausage meat with the bread crumb and chestnut mixture with remaining chestnuts, broken in small pieces.

CHICKEN PIE
1 four-pound chicken
1 onion
1 medium sized carrot
2 stalks celery, or 1-2 cup finely cut
3 quarts water (boiling)
1-2 tablespoon salt
1-8 teaspoon pepper
1 pimiento (canned) cut into small pieces
1 green pepper—cut into small pieces

Clean, singe and cut into pieces for serving the chicken, wash thoroughly, place in kettle with onion thinly sliced, carrot cut in thin slices, and celery cut into small pieces. Cook until chicken is tender, adding salt and pepper when half done. Place the chicken in a casserole or baking dish, add pimiento and green pepper and two potatoes cut into eighths if desired.

The liquor which remains in kettle may be thickened with 1-3 cup flour, diluted with a little cold water, to make a smooth paste. Pour over the meat, leaving the carrot, onion and celery in it. Season to taste. Cover with a good paste, and bake until paste is done, about

WASH KIDNEYS IF THEY HURT

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys If
Back Pains You or Bladder
Bothers

Flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much meat and rich food may form uric acid, which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach aches, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer irritates, thus often ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink. —Adv.

20 to 25 minutes in an oven hot enough to send the pastry up and slightly brown it in the first fifteen minutes. Then reduce the heat. Many housewives like to use, instead of a pie paste, a rich biscuit dough, and cut out of the dough tiny biscuits. Place these on top the pie a little distance apart, and bake fifteen minutes in a hot oven.

RAISIN COCKTAIL
2 cups seedless raisins
1-2 cup white grape juice or loganberry juice
1 lemon
1 cup ketchup
1-3 cup chopped almonds
10 drops tobacco sauce
1-2 cup fine cut celery

Soak the raisins in the grape or loganberry juice one hour; drain the raisins and mix with the juice of the lemon, ketchup, tobacco sauce, celery and almonds. Chill thoroughly, and serve in glasses.

WESTERN COUPE
1 quart cider
2 cups sugar
Juice 1 lemon
6 fine western apples (any good apple may be used.)
6 oranges

Boil sugar and cider 5 minutes. Add lemon, cool and freeze as you would ice cream. Pare and cut the apples in eighths; cook in cider, adding sugar to taste, until the apples are soft, but not broken. Separate into sections the oranges, freed from skin and membrane.

In tall glasses, champagne or fruit, arrange the sections of apples and oranges. Fill glass with the frozen cider, and garnish with beaten cream and cubes of jelly.

Note: A "coupe" is a frozen mixture served in glasses over cup of fruit. It is usually garnished with stiffly-beaten cream and fruit.

TWO TITLES TO BE DECIDED THANKSGIVING DAY

(BY MERRICK M. HILL.)
Two titles will be decided, at the South-Central battle Thursday morning.

The first and most important one to be contested for is the Championship of Lima.

The second, which will also go to the winning eleven is expressed by the slang expression

THE FIGHTING TEAM EVER PRODUCED BY A LIMA HIGH SCHOOL.

For, just two days before the annual city classic, word from both camps brings the news that each aggregation will put forth its utmost strength to win.

Never before has there been as much interest in the Thanksgiving Day game and never before have the two elevens appeared to be so evenly matched.

From end to end of each line and man for man in the backfield, the aggregations appear almost equal in weight, ability and football knowledge.

PLAYING FINE GAME

South has played a wonderful brand of football all season, starting out the year with a bang-up rip into 'em style of play, that has produced results and that has been sustained all thru the season.

Central, on the other hand, was slow to hit the stride and looked weak in the opening games, yet officials who have worked in the majority of Central's home games declare that they have never seen a team develop so much after the start of the season.

One thing is certain—were both teams to play under their 1922 schedule, the results would be vastly different. Cleveland Heights, which was defeated by South 7 to 6, would have trouble now in holding the Blue and Gold to one or even three touchdowns.

Central, also, would amass huge scores against teams which held the Red and Green to a few touchdowns in the battles at the start of the year.

WEIGHTS EVEN

Weights of the teams are nearly the same, and neither South nor Central will have any decided advantage because of extra poundage. In playing ability, it is impossible to say either is superior.

South has completed more passes during the season than Central, yet until the Canton McKinley game South's passes were short. In the McKinley affair, the formula "Winegardner to Barrington" netted 95 yards in two attempts.

The Red and Green with Burdette or McLaughlin at the hurling end, seem to get their throws away quicker and their passes have averaged over 20-yards for the entire season.

Should the game develop into a punting battle during the first half, Winegardner and Berger will take turns to kicking for the Blue and Gold while Seely will deliver for Central. All three lads have booted the oval for 55 and 60 yards in games during the season, and the Central-South game will be the first battle in which either team is opposed by one its equal in kicking.

PRACTICE CHEERING
South has gained its reputation by its ability to buck the line and by off-tackle plunges. DuPere, Fisher, Goodrich and Winegardner have worn down several lines by their continued plunging and they will undoubtedly attempt this style of game; yet Central presents the strongest line the Blue and Gold has faced.

Drew has carried the brunt of the plunging for Central and he has shown marked ability to pick a hole.

He will find almost a stonewall waiting for him Thursday and weak spots in the South line have been reinforced, according to reports from the camp headed by Coach Burdette. Michaels, who started the season for Central as quarterback, has relieved Drew several times recently and it is likely that ternate in the backfield, especially as a broken tin is almost impossible for a moral assistance in the cheering. Central has been for several weeks in perfect yells. South will head it section with a band.

Pep meetings and yells have been a common occurrence both schools, and 1922 will organized cheering and enthusiasm among the students both Central and South before—but then, they'll cheer for.

Coaching Advances Football

BY "BO" McHILLIN

For many years the general impression in the north and the east has been that football in the south was far below that of the other sections. The far west was also left out in the rating of the different teams for a long time. This is hard to believe now, tho, on account of the progress shown in these sections in the past several years.

The progress of the south to grasp the importance of football can be explained to some extent. For a long time the teams in the east would engage graduates of their own systems as coaches of their teams. The same methods have been followed in the south until just a few years ago. The south was the longest in getting away from the plan and they have not advanced in the progress of the game as rapidly as the teams of the east. But at the present time the south has come into its own along football lines and will be heard from in all ratings from now on.

The open style of play has advanced the game to a great extent and has allowed the smaller institutions a better chance to cope with the larger ones. It has developed many new methods and systems of play which have caused the teams to break away from the alumni system of coaching.

About the only ones using this entirely new are the members of the big three and they would probably be better off if they would broaden out just a little. This has been proven by the way Central and some of the other smaller institutions have been able to score two or more touchdowns against these teams.

MUST MIX 'EM UP

You will recall that the Central line last year showed a big improvement over the year before. The secret of this was the coaching of "Fats" Thornhill from the University of Texas. Next year Glenn Warner is going out on the Pacific coast to try out his methods with the Leland Stanfords eleven. Then there is Jones of Iowa, who is a Yale man, going great in the west. At Cornell you have a graduate of the Minnesota system in Dubie. Then in the south there is Stigman at Georgia, who is a Chicago man. Kluge of Illinois is at Florida and so on down the line.

I think there has been a realization that the old "home town system" can be improved upon if they will only go to the proper place to get it. They have found that the other teams have some good points in their systems and that it will be well worth while to mix things up a little and to learn something new.

As a result of this new era in football the south is coming to the front and from now on will be competing with the best teams in the north and the east for recognition. Central, Georgia Tech and the University of Georgia have been making creditable showings with the big ones for the past few years.

This season the University of Alabama has jumped into prominence with her win over Pennsylvania. Several of the other southern teams have journeyed north and have made creditable showings. Much of this is due to the advancement of the game and the studying of the new methods developed by the famous schools.

LOCKE SCORES MOST POINTS IN BIG TEN TAD JONES TO BE GIVEN VOTE OF CONFIDENCE BY YALE

BY HENRY L. FARRELL

NEW YORK — Even tho many eastern records might be a little better looking at the end of the 1922 football season, few changes are expected among the prominent coaches.

Because the Yale eleven turned out to be a fine fizzle instead of the great machine that was expected last September, it was expected outside of Yale circles that Tad Jones, the Eli mentor, would lose his job.

Jones not only will keep his job, but he will be given a vote of confidence this winter, according to reliable information. Those on the inside claim that Yale blundered and floundered around this season, thru no fault of the coach.

Losing to Princeton and Brown, Harvard had a bad season but no one of Crimson following had a thought of holding Bob Fisher or the Haughton system responsible. The Haughton system is a mighty influence at Harvard.

There were rumors that Fisher would leave and that Percy Haughton, the guiding genius to Harvard football, would return to Cambridge next fall to try his hand at developing a non-losing team.

The stories were believed most every place but at Harvard, where they drew a laugh.

Bill Roper may not return to Princeton, because he is now laboring under the pressure of outside business and it is understood that he may be named for a responsible government position. Roper is now prominent in Philadelphia politics.

Frank Flournoy, matchmaker for the club, is dickering with Tommy McGinty and Billy Gibson, managers of Wolfe and Jerome, respectively, and it is probable that they will come to terms.

Wolfe and Jerome boxed two of the most sensational battles seen in New York since the inception of the Walker law, at the Metropolitan Velodrome last summer. Jerome won the first fight, having Wolfe on the floor a dozen times or more in the course of 12 rounds. Two weeks later Wolfe came back and handed Jerome just as neat a thumping, easily winning the decision.

Red Oldham, Detroit southpaw who's under investigation by Judge Landis for playing winter ball, announces he'll quit baseball and go into business in California.

Rival Bantams May Clash

NEW YORK — Jack Wolfe, who so decisively defeated Joe Lynch at the Madison Square Garden a month or so ago, will probably battle Frankie Jerome again at the famous old temple of sweat early in December.

Frank Flournoy, matchmaker for the club, is dickering with Tommy McGinty and Billy Gibson, managers of Wolfe and Jerome, respectively, and it is probable that they will come to terms.

PUNCHES WILL WIN TITLES

NEW YORK — Perhaps the French Boxing Federation is more generally recognized in France than the New York commission is in this country and even in its own state.

When the French ring salons took Batling Siki's titles away from him and suspended him for nine months from all activities in the ring, it was perhaps accepted as official in France—because the French wanted it that way.

Getting down to common sense, it must be a new day when a ring champion can be legislated out from under his crown. It has never been done before and if this case becomes an established precedent, it is not to be denied that Siki should have been disciplined for striking the manager of another boxer in the ring, but the French should have started the "training" of what they now call a savage as soon as he beat Carpenter.

Instead of hailing him as a hero and allowing him all kinds of liberties, the French people should have discouraged him from seeking a place on their level if they did figure that he was not fit company for them.

Giving him ninety days suspension was fit punishment for the offense, but the attempt to take his title away from him is silly.

As Jack McLaughlin says—"The only way to get a title is to smack someone on the chin and the only way to lose it is to get smacked."

Officially, Johnny Wilson and Johnny Kilbane are not world's champions by the ruling of the New York boxing commission. Officially, Siki is not the world's light heavyweight champion and the European heavyweight champion.

But ask anyone in the street who are the champions in those classes. French people always go to extremes. They were not content when they got Siki down and they are trying to keep him down.

When he was arrested for appearing on Armistice Day in the uniform of the Algerian Rifles, an outfit with which he served for four years, he was arrested. That savors of persecution and persecution has no place in sportsmanship.

Many explanations are being made that Siki's color had nothing to do with it. Maybe not. However, if Georges Carpentier had done the same thing when he was in all his glory it's a hundred to one shot that he never would have been disciplined.

The New York boxing commission was quick to back up the actions of the French body in giving Siki the gate in barring him from this country. In this august New York body is anything but consistent.

During the last fight between Jack Britton and Ted Lewis, Britton went over to the Lewis corner and took a hefty swing on the jaw of one of Ted's seconds. Everyone, including the commissioners, thought it was a good joke.

Just recently after a bout at a small club, in which one of the boys in the Johnny Keyes-Jimmy Kelly stables was given a draw, someone entered the dressing room and gave Referee Artie McGovern a terrible beating. Nothing has been done about it.

The commission has always maintained that it must support its officials. If that support, referees in the future will have to go about in armor plate.

FOUR ACES ON WEST VIRGINIA ELEVEN

MORGANTOWN, W. Va.—In compiling the fine record made by West Virginia on the gridiron this fall, the work of four players has stood out prominently. Captain Russ Meredith at tackle, Nick Narducci at half and Joe Setron at guard.

Football experts in this section feel that Narducci, Meredith and Setron are entitled to high consideration when a selection is made of the eleven greatest players in the country.

Captain Russ Meredith has been one of the outstanding captains of the year. Aside from playing a brilliant game at tackle, he has proved an ideal leader of men.

Plays Football With Bum Leg

BLOOMINGTON, Ind.—Two silver plates in a human leg would hardly be considered a favorable acquisition for a football warrior, but "Nig" Smith, of Evansville, Ind., carries the plates through the line with him every day in scrimmages on the Indiana University varsity football squad. They don't seem to make much difference, from the way he plows through the tackles opposing him and mixes the enemy's plays behind the line.

"Nig" has been fitted out with a large double brace to strengthen his leg, which was broken in several places in 1918 and was patched up with the metal. He got his trail in three years of playing at tackle on the Central High School team, Evansville, Ind. He also played basketball three years and was a track man. Smith is 26 years old, weighs 158, and is six feet tall.

Keith Headliners Scheduled for Thanksgiving

WHAT appears to be a delightful and entertaining bill of Keith vaudeville is scheduled for Thanksgiving Day at the Faurot Opera House.

One of the features of the bill is the appearance of Rita Gould, famous delineator of songs of character. Her song numbers are all exclusive and were written by Miss Frances Nordstrom, the well known author of stage successes. Also Miss Gould wears perfectly stunning Paris creations!

Then there is a musical act, coming the famous woman, saxophone, Ruth Granville, assisted on the violin by Mr. Hal Sanders. Both musicians come well recommended and promise a wealth of musical entertainment.

Hazardous feats in mid-air feature the appearance of the La Velos. The girl in the act is a recent prize winner in a New York beauty contest in which she took part.

Two well known personalities of vaudeville, Primrose Seaman and Arthur Conrad, will present their own "Musikomikalties," a delightful novelty rendered in the distinctive style of this well liked duo.

Last, but not least, a sensational sketch, "A Current of Fun" will make its appearance. Just what it's all about remains a mystery, so we shall wait and see.

Some progress, of course, has been shown in the bigger pictures of the past few months. "Robin Hood," "Manlaughter" and Nazimova's "Salem" are technically the best films yet made.

Frank Keenan and Pat O'Malley have been added to the cast of "Brass," which is being made from the novel by Charles Norris.

Remember Macey Harlan? He has been added to the cast of Pola Negri's first American made picture, "Bella Donna."

DELPHOS CLUBMEN ARE SCORED

One Fined. Another Lectured Following Raid on Rooms

One member of the Pastime club, Delphos, was arraigned Monday night before Mayor J. K. Williams on a charge of destroying evidence and the head of the organization given warning as the result of a liquor raid Saturday night.

Franklin Patton is said by police to be the member who threw a half-pint bottle of liquor over the head of Patrolman T. B. Waggoner and thru a doorway. The bottle was found intact, having struck a pile of rubbish, but the hitch in the proceedings against Patton arises from inability of police to declare exactly that the bottle is the one he threw. Patton pleaded not guilty to the charge and the case was held open for further investigation.

Thomas Ostendorf, president of the club, was given a lecture by the mayor and Chief of Police Kehres. He was warned that permission of liquor in the rooms will be to court wholesale arrests and heavy fines. Raymond Lang pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct and fined $10. The charge grew out of an incident in connection with the raid on the club, officers stated.

TRAIN DERAILED
INDIANAPOLIS — The engine and four coaches of train number 30 on the Pennsylvania railroad were derailed near here. The conductor was slightly injured.

FOUND UNNECESSARY TO TRANSFER DELPHOS FUND

Petition for transfer of money from other city sources to the safety fund will not be referred to Delphos city council at its meeting Tuesday night, Auditor William Shaffer has decided.

He has found that he can get along until the first meeting in December without a transfer. It may mean an overdraft at the local depository of city funds, but that can be covered quickly, he asserts. Shaffer declared he will be better able to get a line on the city's needs for next year by following out this arrangement. The safety fund has been in straitened circumstances.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Mrs. Wilson Bald who moved recently to Duplo, says her kitchen clock hasn't run very good time since her husband fixed it. "He meant to oil the wheels," she says. "But he took the wrong bottle from the shelf, and put glue on the wheel instead."

Jim Grubb known as one of the best soloists in Lima, made a loud and not particularly musical outcry at the dentist's office. "The dentist didn't hurt me," he explained when he came out. "I leaned up against a hot radiator in his office."

Walt Schaffer, Duplo city auditor, accompanied by a friend took a day off for rabbit hunting and bagged nine. Schaffer said the would have got more but for his heavyweight friend.

He wouldn't sit in the middle of the automobile with the rest of the crowd but he slid off the seat into a ditch and took them half the day to dig out.

Jack Harley found it one of his truck-driving tricks to load on household goods on a hill-side street while he noked at a door to ask his way to an address where the load was to be delivered.

Looking back he saw the machine drifting rearward down the grade. It plunged into another street and landed upside down in a back yard which proved to be the very place where the load was to be delivered.

Pillsbury's Best Flour

Pillsbury's Family of Foods
Pillsbury's Best Flour
Pancake Flour - Health Bran
Wheat Cereal - Rye Flour
Durum Flour - Faros

ONE REASON housewives prefer Pillsbury's Best is because foods made from Pillsbury's stay fresher longer. Why? The answer is found in its rich gluten content.

Gluten, which is the most nourishing part of the wheat, has unusual qualities of absorption. It is the gluten cells that take up and hold water and milk. Because Pillsbury's Best absorbs more of these liquids, it makes more foods per sack and is most economical. Likewise it makes better foods, and the moisture in them keeps them fresh much longer.

Purchase a sack of Pillsbury's Best today. Note the creamy-white color which is proof of high grade wheat and a rich gluten content.

WORN OUT AFTER SHE COOKED A MEAL

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Read the Result

Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I suffered for a year with nervous troubles and irregularities before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back pained all the time and I was unfit for housework. I was worn out if I cooked a meal, and was unable to do my washing. My girl friends and my sister told me if I would take your Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills I would be relieved. After taking the first bottle I felt better, and neglected it awhile, but found I could not do my work until I was stronger. So I took the Vegetable Compound again and now I am the mother of a 19 months old boy. He is fat and healthy and I am sure I could never have earned him if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound. I recommend your medicine to all women although I am young to be advising some one older."—Mrs. Ernest Petroff, 318 W. Liberty St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains no harmful drugs and can be taken in safety by any woman.
